THE SCOUT'S GRAND NATIONAL FINAL—NAP ON GOLDEN MILLER

SAVERS-SOCIETY AND HEARTBREAK HILL

ANOTHER JOCKEY FOR GREGALACH: FAWCUS INJURED: PARVIN ENGAGED TO RIDE

By THE SCOUT

THERE was a most important Grand National development at the eleventh hour when "lack" Fawcus, the leading amateur who loined the professional ranks recently, broke his collarbone when riding in the opening hardle event here to-day, and will thus not be able to ride Gregalach to-inservow. That sound and experienced lockey Parvin has rightly been retained to take the mount.

Fawcus fell at the second hurdle when riding Pabokee. Leading riders rarely take a mount in a 'chase beforehand, but a hurdle event is reckoned different. For instance, Mr. Bostwick, the pilot of Dusty Foot to-morrow, won in bold style again on his American-bred champion Flaming.

Gregalach has been a horse of many American-bred champion Flaming.

Gregalach has been a horse of many American-bred champion Flaming.

Gliff Richards got him well away and in the lead until he took a good pitch behind. Sons hard luck for Fawcus to-day. Whether all the old itmers approved the Fawcus style or not at Afatres the "live" partnership had worked delignifully at Newbury. Before Fawcus had been free by the accident to Grakle, Parvin had been free by the accident of Grakle, Parvin had been free by the accident of Grakle, Parvin had been free by the accident of Grakle, Parvin had been free by the accident to Grakle, Parvin had been free by the accident to Grakle, Parvin had been free by the accident to Grakle, Parvin had been free by the accident to Grakle, Parvin had been free by the accident to Grakle, Parvin had been free by the accident to Grakle, Parvin had been free by the accident to Grakle, Parvin had been free by the accident to Grakle, Parvin had been free by the accident to Grakle, Parvin had been free by the accident to Grakle, Parvin had been free by the accident to Grakle, Parvin had been free by the accident to Grakle, Parvin had been free by the accident to Grakle, Parvin had been free by the accident to Grakle, Parvin had been free by the accident to Grakle, Parvin had been free by the accident to Grakle had been free by the accident free free had been free by the accident free free had been free had been free by the accident free free had been free by the a
